FOREWORD

This book is not the first attempt ever to list the descendants of James Smith of Berwick, nor is it said that his family is the first of that name to be found continuously in the records of York County. We do present it, however, as a sort of first instalment, to be followed,—we hope, by similar lists, not only of this family, but of other Smiths who lived in Colonial York County, and whose descendants are living there today.

Even as no Smith genealogy could ever be final or complete,—so, my acknowledgments are necessarily too brief. The material concerning the descendants of Joseph Smith of York originated in a history of the town of Litchfield published on the occasion of its centenary in 1895. The descendants of Joseph Smith and Hannah Roberts of Lyman,—a very large bloc of names, indeed, was the work of Nellie Smith, for over 40 years librarian at the Dyer Library in Saco. To my grandfather's first cousins,—Adelia, Ellen, and Marcia, I shall always be indebted for their unfailing good humor in spite of frequent unannounced visits and endless quizzing,—they really initiated the work.

EDWIN E. SMITH, M. D.

James Smith, our progenitor, appears first in York deeds in 1668. His wife was Martha Mills, born at Saco, daughter of Thomas Mills, who bought land in Saco, 2 Aug. 1642, and whose wife (according to Bourne) was the daughter of John Wadleigh (N. E. H. G. Reg., Vol. 69, p. 189, 1915). His will (Vol. I, Fol. 1, York Wills) mentions the following children (recorded Oct. 10, 1687):

James
Mary
Elizabeth
John

James, the oldest son, married Martha, daughter of Thomas Bragdon. Children, born in York:

Joseph, b. April 16, 1694.
James, b. Nov. 10, 1697.
Daniel, b. Nov. 2, 1705.
Mary, b. July 13, 1707.
Martha, b. July 11, 1710, m. Tobias Ham, Dec. 12, 1740.
Ebenezer, b. March 30, 1714.

These names were copied from York town records (not original records, however), but it appears from York deeds (Vol. IX, Fol. 97 and 99) that there was another child, John, who married Judith Thompson May 1, 1724, according to these same copied records.

Joseph[3] (James[2], James[1]), born in York, Maine, April 16, 1694, m. 1st, Thankful, daughter of Nicholas Smith; by her he had (Town of York Records):

By 26 Oct. 1727 (York deeds, Vol. XII, fol. 253) he had wife Mary, by whom he had (names and dates of this line taken from town history of Litchfield, Me., published in 1895):

Joseph, Jr.[4] (Joseph[3], James[2], James[1]), brother of Eliphalet, the first settler in Litchfield, lived with his grandfather James on Lines Island for several years, his grandfather having moved there from York about 1720. He lived for a time at Brunswick, then on Lynde's Island, coming to Litchfield soon after his brother, Eliphalet. He died Feb. 7, 1822. Susannah, his wife, died June 8, 1811. The will of Dr. Slyvester Gardiner, dated April 25, 1786, speaks of Lynde's Island as being leased to Joseph Smith. Children of Joseph and Susannah:

While living in Brunswick, Joseph, Senior, with his sons, Joseph, Jr., Eliphalet, and Thomas, was at work upon his land near his broher-in-law, Tobias Ham's tan-pit, when the Indians got between them and the block house and killed Thomas, while Joseph, Sr., shot two of the Indians. Eliphalet married, Nov. 25, 1765, Jane Neal, born in Scituate, Mass., June 4, 1732, a sister of John Neal, Jr., father of the Neals that early came to Litchfield. Eliphalet lived several years in Brunswick and Topsham, and he and Benjamin Hinkley were the first settlers there. "Thomas Cotton of Brunswick married the widow of Isaac Hinkley who was killed by the Indians and whose maiden name was Smith of York" (N. E. H. G. Reg., Vol. 4, p. 92).
